A warm welcome to you if you are visiting us and a special welcome to Emily Uren being baptised this morning: We hope you will stay for refreshments after the service, children's refreshments are available in the playspace, under parents/carers supervision.

Messy Church are meeting this morning: In All Saints Hall 11.00am for 'The Story of Blind Bartimaeus' Mark 10. 46-52 and followed by party food.

Saints and Sinners in St George's Churchyard on Saturday 17th July 2.30pm Tales of unexpected with strawberries, tea and cake! There will be tours of the new storyboard trail, with optional tours of the belltower up to 4.30pm. Entry is free and open to all, with donations to Graih.

Island Sprituality Network (ISN): St John's Mill Saturday 10th July 10.00am - 1.00pm. Guest speaker will be Methodist minister Revd Steve Ingrouille, Steve writes '*Jesus promises his followers that "wherever two or three gather in my name, there am I with them" (Matt 18:20) So why does it sometimes feel easier to experience the presence of God in certain specific places and times? Our Celtic forebears believed in Thin Places, where the boundary between the physical and spiritual realms seems more permeable - what do we understand about this concept today? Drawing upon his experiences as a Pilgrimage leader to the Holy Land, and the results of his recent sabbatical exploration, Steve will use the lenses of Scripture, Tradition, Experience, and Reason to help us explore this topic and prayerfully consider "what are the thin places of our lives today"?' Catherine Quirk Secretary ISN Planning Team

Children are very welcome at St George's with All Saints!

We understand that babies and very little ones may not be so quiet as older children and adults: parents/carers, please don't be embarrassed by this.
For children aged 3 and under we have a PlaySpace where parents (or other adult carers) may take their children.
There are baby changing facilities in the larger W.C. N.B. you are responsible for your child at all times – the church is a public space.
