Todays Worship: A warm welcome to Margaret Fourie who is with us again, presiding and preaching at our service of Holy Communion. Andie is on the North Quay this morning for the Dunkirk Commemoration Service. Messy Church is meeting in All Saints Hall at 11.00am and will be learning about 'The Roman Centurion's Faith For His Sick Servant. Later today we welcome Voces Insulae– Chamber Choir for a Service of Evensong at 6.30pm.

Andie is to retire as Archdeacon of Man and Vicar of St George's.

As announced at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting on Friday evening, Andie has given notice to the Bishop that he will retire on his 66th birthday (18th September) this year. He will have been in post for the past 10 years exactly. His last Sunday will be the last Sunday of July (25th), after which he will take his statutory 3 weeks' moving leave and some outstanding leave.

Andie writes:

It has been a wonderful 41 years of stipendiary ordained ministry and I have been privileged to serve the Lord in some wonderful parishes, among wonderful people. I have had ups and downs, of course, but through it all, we have met the most amazing people, and still have friends all the way back to my curacy in Burnley in 1980 who are close. I have hugely enjoyed all my ministries—most of the time. But there is no doubt that the Lord has kept the best 'til last. As soon as I saw the advertisement for this ministry in the Church Times, I turned to Jane and said "That's my job!"

And it has been, over ten amazing years. St George's has been a place of hope and support, our church building a sacred space of beauty (and mould-free, a surprisingly rare thing on the island), and our worship has offered renewal and refreshment in times of challenge and hard work as archdeacon. I
